MGA Fall Happenings

By Roxy Heinrich

Fall Tickles our Senses

Touching and petting lobsters and an octopus was a fall activity experienced by twenty fifth graders, their teacher, Mrs. White, and three classroom parents, Rachelle Bennie, Rob Smith, and Mike Rivera. Catalina Island, specifically Toyon Bay, was a fabulous environment for them to study science from September 21-23. The water was unusually warm, contributing to the plethora of sea life they saw, and the night snorkeling was absolutely amazing!

Tasting chili, potato soup and cornbread was part of the soldiers' lunch that students ate during A Walk Through California and A Walk Through Revolutionary America. These special programs were brought to our school for fourth and fifth graders on October 14. A trained history educator visited the school and did one program in the morning and a different program in the afternoon. Costumes worn by students enhanced the feeling of actually living history. Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, and John Hancock were among those represented by costumed students, who were assigned character cards and roles.

Seeing big orange pumpkins said, "Fall is here," to students from grades K-2, under the guidance Gretchen Bethurum, Kristen Pennington, and Tara Pierce. On Oct. 15, during a field trip to the pumpkin patch on Live Oak Canyon Road, they also got to see other varieties of pumpkins that are blue or white. They sat on massive hay bales watching charts and demonstrations of the various stages of pumpkin growth: the seeds, the sprouts, the plants, the vines, the flowers, and the pumpkins themselves. Hay rides through the fields, a hay fort for climbing, and a baby animal zoo completed their sights on the trip.

Smelling crunchy fall leaves under your feet, pine tree needles above your heads, bonfires licking the burning wood all signal Spiritual Retreat to high school students. Kaleb Humpal, who attended for the third time during his high school years, declares that his favorite aspect of this weekend at Camp Cedar Falls is the adventure of nature walks down by the river with his friends. He also really enjoyed the drama presentations this year that allowed people in the audience to volunteer to take part in the skits. Jordan Shattuck has attended all 4 years. She felt this year had an incredibly well-organized program, but she felt the difference from her freshmen year was in the number of new people and friends being met. The first year, of course, there were many, but by now she knows everybody. Both these students agreed that this weekend is not meant to induce a "spiritual high," but rather a bonding of friends through shared spiritual experiences. They both long to go back to the days when Mr. Riddle took students on a phenomenal "night hike."

Hearing the roar of the crowd at football games is sweet to the ears of 11 players this year. They are coached by Pastor Jon Ciccarelli and Mr. Todd Nelson. MGA just began participating, by popular demand, in football last year, along with seven other academies throughout the Southeastern California Conference. Games and tournaments will be concluded at the end of October. Griffin Mupas is on offense as a wide receiver who runs and catches. He claims, "Our offense is pretty decent, but defense can use a lot of work. Practices for our school are really cross-fit workouts. Catching the touchdown passes is what I enjoy most about it! Football is fun and definitely worth doing if you have the time and stamina."

Feeling the Holy Spirit at work through all these activities brings joy to our hearts during the fall. Keep us in your prayers.

PRAYER WORKS

Casting all your care upon Him, for he careth for you. 1 Peter 5:7
When Jesus was upon the earth, He taught His disciples how to pray. He directed them to present their daily needs before God, and to cast all their care upon Him. And the assurance He gave them that their petitions should be heard, is assurance also to us Prevailing Prayer p. 93 EGW
